

Creating Your Own Information Page at ChristianWAHM.com

One of the newest features at ChristianWAHM.com is the opportunity for you to create a page all about YOU! We used to try and do "Featured ChristianWAHM" pages and had a hard time keeping up with them all. Now, you can create a ChristianWAHM page all about you and by yourself.

There is only one page allowed per user. You may use HTML and post any pictures on your page as long as they are hosted somewhere else, like on your own website, or at Flickr or PhotoBucket.

WORD OF CAUTION: This page is NOT to be JUST a blatant advertising page. Yes, we want to know about your business, but we also want to know about you. Exercise reasonable caution with details, i.e., only post the state you live in, etc.

Here are questions to help you develop your ChristianWAHM page.
